HEIR TO THRONE OF SPAIN BORN

DIRECT MALE SUCCESSION IS ASSURED

SIGNAL FOR GREAT REJOICING

ADVENT OF ROYAL SON CAUSES MUCH MERRYMAKING.

CEREMONY OF PRESENTATION

Solemn Dignitaries Forget All Etiquette and Break Into Cheers as the Premier Makes the Announcement: "Gentlemen, It Is a Prince."

MADRID, May 10.—The direct male succession to the throne of Spain was assured by the birth today of a son to Queen Victoria. The news thrilled the country, and tonight the happy event is being celebrated from Gibraltar to the Pyrenees. Queen Victoria and her son are both doing well. It has been decided that the baptism shall occur Tuesday noon. In court circles it is desired to name the baby Carlos, but the matter of his appellation has not yet been definitely decided.

The baby prince weighs 8½ pounds.

The hurried departure of royal messengers from the palace at 10 o'clock this morning to summon courtiers and the members of the diplomatic corps gave the first indication that the birth was imminent. The usual gathering outside the palace was soon swelled by immense throngs, who watched the brilliantly uniformed personages drive up to the royal residence.

Crowd Waits Breathlessly.

The crowd awaited in suspense until nearly 1 o'clock, when the thunder of the first cannon shot signified that the royal accouchement was over. The reports were counted anxiously until the fifteenth and then a complete silence ensued. The seconds appeared as hours until the sixteenth shot boomed, and the continuation until 21 informed the public that the royal child was a son.

The sixteenth report brought forth a ringing cheer, and at the same time the royal standard was hoisted over the palace. The people danced with joy and embraced each other, shouting "Long live the king, long live the queen." The flags of Spain and Great Britain were raised over all the public buildings of Madrid. Many business houses closed for the remainder of the day.

In the meanwhile the ceremony of presentation was being carried out inside the palace. The mistress of the robes, carrying a huge silver tray, upon which was lying the newly-born baby, accompanied by King Alfonso and Premier Maura, appeared in the antechamber, where the courtiers had assembled.

Young Monarch Full of Joy.

The young monarch appeared full of joy as the premier, raising the drapery which covered the infant, said:

"Gentlemen, it is a prince."

The solemn dignitaries thereupon forgot all etiquette and cheered both the king and queen. The minister of justice made out the birth certificate, which was signed by all present. The gathering then broke up.

King Alfonso telegraphed the good news to the pope, King Edward and the heads of other states, and later the congratulations began to come in.

The accouchement was in every respect normal and the queen is making satisfactory progress. Her majesty purposes herself to nourish the infant prince, who shows signs of the utmost vitality. He has a strong voice, blue eyes, and a complexion like his mother. The queen was the first to kiss the baby and she was followed by the two grandmothers, Princess Beatrice of Battenberg and Maria Christiana, the dowager queen of Spain.

National Holidays Announced.

Decrees were issued tonight declaring a national holiday throughout Spain for Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The cabinet later presented to King Alfonso for his signature, decrees transferring the title of heir presumptive from Prince Charles of Bourbon to the new-born prince.

King Alfonso today, in honor of the event, decreed the pardon of thousands of prisoners, including eight persons who were condemned to death.

In no monarchial country in the world is the ceremonial observed at the birth of the first offspring of the king and queen so rigidly strictly and formally as in Spain, and on this occasion, so significant for the bourbon dynasty, when an heir to the throne is so anxiously awaited, nothing was omitted from the courtly etiquette.

From the moment when Queen Victoria was officially announced to be approaching the period of maternity, the most careful surveillance was exercised over her, in order that the hopes of the country should not run any risk of being blighted.

Several months before her accouchement, according to Spanish royal custom, the queen took up her residence at the palace in Madrid to await the anxious moment.

Thence, accompanied by the king, she has undertaken from time to time pilgrimages to various holy shrines to pray for a safe deliverance, in the same way as the humblest Spanish woman.

For quite a month preceding the auspicious event, members of the proud Spanish nobility have been in constant attendance at the palace as a precaution against the unwelcome surprise of a premature birth, whilst the members of the royal family have taken up their residence either in the palace itself or near at hand in the capital.

Doctor's Announcement.

When at length Dr. Glendenning, the young English doctor who attended the queen, announced that the birth was a matter of only a few hours, urgent messages were dispatched to the prime minister, Senor Maura, and his colleagues of the cabinet, the military governor of Madrid, the members of the diplomatic corps, the grandees, the knights of the principal orders of chivalry, the leading military attaches, civil authorities and all the ladies and gentlemen attached to the court.

Soon all the officials were gathered in full uniform and wearing the glittering insignia of their decorations, in the grand reception room, gorgeously draped with tapestry, adjoining the

NEITHER SIDE YIELDS

LONGSHOREMEN MUST RETURN OR LOSE POSITIONS.

Are Given One Week in Which to Decide. Steamship Companies Assume Aggressive.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The resident heads of the steamship companies included in the International Mercantile company, assumed the aggressive today. Following a conference they served notice upon the striking longshoremen that unless the latter return to work within a week their places will be permanently filled. The steamship officials reaffirmed their determination not to yield to the demand for higher wages.

A statement was made public, in part as follows:

"Longshoremen are now paid 30 cents an hour during the day and 45 cents for overtime. On most of the piers the average laborer can earn $18 without overtime and on many piers with overtime from $25 to $35 a week.

"It is absolutely untrue that a demand was formulated on all piers before the strike was declared. On most of the piers the men stopped work without any previous intimation."

The statement was indorsed by 28 lines.

In the face of these statements, Patrick Connor, president of the Longshoremen's Union Protective association, predicted full victory for the strikers within 24 hours. Twelve big liners are due within 48 hours, and seven steamers are scheduled to depart. Connor declared the lines would be powerless to cope with such congestion and must meet the men's demands.

To put on further pressure, Connor, who says there are 30,000 men idle, asserted he would bring out the market truck drivers. He will also try to get the coal trimmers to strike, so that vessels may be in serious need of coal.

The strikers were encouraged today when 200 employes of the Fall River line went out. One thousand lumber handlers, employes of 14 lumber companies, also struck, demanding $3 per day of ten hours. The lumber handlers' organization is a branch of the Longshoremen's union.

The coastwise shipping companies have shown a disposition to compromise, and the strike, so far as they are concerned, is practically ended. The transatlantic lines, however, are hopelessly behind in the matter of their freight, and it is known that arrangements are being made to divert freight to other ports. Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore will be chiefly benefited.

CALM EXTERIOR MAKE-BELIEVE

BOISE HAS A DECIDED FEELING OF UNEASINESS.

VIOLENCE IS DAILY DREADED

MANY WITNESSES TO BE CALLED FROM COLORADO.

FIRST TRIAL WILL BE SHORT

Two Weeks Should See All the Evidence in, After Jury Is Selected. Moyer Denies Chicago Journal Story—Was Working in Black Hills.

BOISE, Idaho, May 10.—There is noticeable evidence of relaxation in the atmosphere of Boise tonight. Notwithstanding the outward appearance of apathy and lack of interest in the case, there has existed for some time in Boise an extremely tense condition. Reports as to what might happen either before the trial opened or during its progress have tended to create a very decided feeling of uneasiness.

The presence in the city of a number of private detectives, employed by both sides, and the outspoken attacks by the radical element of the socialists, necessarily brought out many rumors and reports, purporting to come from authentic sources, of probable trouble such as an attack on the jail or an attempt to spirit away some of the chief witnesses for the prosecution.

Tension Is Relieved.

The proceedings in the court room yesterday did much to dissipate this. There was a spirit of give and take. A joke from one or another of counsel or a laugh caused by the answer of a talesman acted as safety valves, and before the day was over the strain was relieved and everyone breathed easier.

Mr. Richardson, one of Haywood's leading counsel, said today:

"We expect the sheriff will select his veniremen with fairness and with care, so as to enable us to secure an impartial jury. If the right class of men is selected, we will not take a long time to secure a jury."

Many Witnesses From Colorado.

While the number of witnesses to be called on both sides looks formidable, there is good reason to believe that a very large number of these witnesses will not be in attendance. A considerable proportion of the witnesses for the prosecution live in Colorado or in other neighboring states. This is also true of the defense, as the home of the prisoners is in Colorado, and it is not possible to bring them to Idaho against their will.

Lawyers of Boise, not connected in any way with the case but who know as much as is known of what both sides expect to do, say that after the jury is secured, the trial of the case ought to be over in two weeks. Judge Fremont Wood expects to waste no time and another adjournment is not looked for after Monday. The court will sit from 10 a. m. to noon and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and sometimes until 6 o'clock, with one long session on Saturdays.

Several members of the Western Federation of Miners, who are now in Boise, watching the progress of the case, do not join in the belief in some quarters that Orchard will refuse to testify. They believe that he will make his statement upon the stand. On all sides there is question as to how far Orchard will be allowed to go in his statement, which it is alleged implicated Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone. It is around this evidence that the whole case undoubtedly will move.

Moyer Denies Story.

A statement printed by the Chicago Journal charging that one Charles Moyer was in 1886 sentenced to one year in Joliet penitentiary was printed here this afternoon and created much discussion. That C. H. Moyer, the prisoner now in jail here charged with the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, is one and the same man, is denied by the prisoner and his counsel. Moyer, when seen today on the subject, said he was working in the mines in the Black Hills country of South Dakota at the time which is given as between February 4, 1886, and January 4, 1887. He states that it would be easy to verify this by the records of the Castle Creek Gold Mining company at Rockford, S. D., where he says he was working at the time and the officials of the county and state will verify his denial of the story that he was an inmate of the Joliet penitentiary at that time.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 10.—Former Sheriff Edward Bell, who was appointed sheriff June 6, 1904, the date of the Independence depot explosion, H. A. Naylor, ex-city marshal of Victor, and Edward Neville, an assayer at Independence, have been subpoenaed on behalf of the prosecution in the case of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone.

Messrs. Naylor and Bell have always declared that Harry Orchard blew up the Independence depot, and that he was paid $2,000 for committing the murders.

It is not known why Neville has been subpoenaed nor when the men will leave for Boise.

SNOWFALL IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, May 10.—Snow fell to a depth of two inches in the Adirondack section today. Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo and other points also suffered from a miniature blizzard. In this city there was a severe thunderstorm.

SUES FOR $10,000 DAMAGES

Louis Beagle, Injured in Little Clara Mine, Files Suit.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 10.—Louis B. Beagle today brought suit in the district court against F. R. DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WILL NOT BE SEVERED.

Mexico Decides Not to Persist in Her Demands for Extradition of Gen. Jose Lima.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 10.—The Guatemalan affair has been settled. Mexico will not persist in her demand for the extradition of General Jose Lima and of Colonel Onofre Bone, charged with complicity in the assassination of General Barillas. Diplomatic relations will not be severed. Senor Gambon, Mexican minister to Guatemala, will be sent to Salvador. A Mexican consul will attend to this country's affairs in Guatemala. At the same time, Mexico will not give Senor Giron, Guatemalan minister to Mexico, his passports, the idea being to humiliate Guatemala and express Mexico's resentment for Cabrera's conduct.

SECRETARY TAFT STANDS PAT

Won't Accept Ohio's Indorsement, if Coupled With Foraker for Another Term in Senate.

CLEVELAND, O., May 10.—The Plain Dealer will say tomorrow: Secretary of War W. H. Taft will not accept the presidential indorsement from the Republican leaders of Ohio, if it is coupled with an indorsement of Jos. B. Foraker for another term in the United States senate.

Late in the afternoon, after a day of conferences here, Congressman Burton held a long telephone conversation with Secretary Taft at Washington at the request of the secretary. The secretary stands by his original declaration that the contest in Ohio has so shaped itself that Senator Foraker must be eliminated, not only as a presidential, but as a senatorial figure.

COMMITTEE OF FIFTY AT WAR

Comes Near Disbanding When Charge Is Made That Members Wish Unionism Stamped Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—Mayor Schmitz' "committee of fifty," called by him to advise him about settling the present industrial crisis, came near disbanding today when President Tracy of the State Federation of Labor charged that his investigations led him to believe that certain men, representing large financial interests, were opposed to a settlement of the street car strike because they wanted to have the troops called in and unionism in San Francisco stamped out. The discussion soon became acrimonious, but was stopped by Mayor Schmitz, who called for less talking and more work.

SALT LAKE SMELTER CLOSES

Failure to Reach Agreement With Greek Laborers Is Cause—Over 1,000 Men Out of Work.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 10.—The plant of the American Smelting and Refining company at Murray, a suburb, employing between 1,000 and 1,200 men, with a monthly pay roll of $75,000, closed down indefinitely this evening, and the last one of the "live" furnaces of the eight operated at the plant was allowed to cool. This action of the company was a result of failure to reach an agreement with its Greek laborers. The foreigners intimidated the American workmen at the plant, who wished to work, but were not allowed to do so by the others. Today the company offered to grant an increase of from 10 to 25 cents or nothing, and tonight the order closing down indefinitely was posted. The work now done here will be sent to the plants at Denver, Leadville and Pueblo.

PITCHED BATTLE WITH GUNS

Kansan, Who Shoots Wife on Streets, Is Pursued by Angry Mob. Makes His Escape.

WICHITA, Kan., May 10.—W. R. Fulton shot and dangerously wounded his wife, from whom he had been separated, here tonight. Three bullets took effect, one in the side and two in the left shoulder, rendering amputation of the arm necessary. She is now resting easy.

Fulton was pursued by a crowd and surrounded in a freight yard. During a pitched battle with revolvers he escaped and is still at large.

Several shots were heard in a remote part of the Frisco yards shortly after the pitched battle in the box car and a thorough search failed to find the cause. It is supposed by the police who made the search that Fulton has committed suicide.

'FRISCO FACES A LONG SIEGE

STREET CAR STRIKE WILL BE FIGHT TO A FINISH.

MORE PROTECTION NEEDED

CITY POLICE FORCE IS QUITE INADEQUATE.

THE CITIZENS ARE UP IN ARMS

Committee Appointed to Secure Industrial Peace Unable to Find Any Basis for Settlement. Exorbitant Fares Charged by the "Cabbies."

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—The street car strike has developed into a fight to a finish. Neither side is willing to accept arbitration and the citizens committees appointed to secure industrial peace have been unable to find any basis of settlement. It has been demonstrated that the present police force is inadequate and that stronger measures will be necessary to insure general resumption of service if the struggle is conducted on present lines.

The wish today of the United Railroad officials was to run a string of cars from the barn at Oak and Broderick, through the burned district and north on Market street to the ferry building, but the consent of the police department could not be obtained. As a compromise, two cars were run as far into the burned district as Larkin street, being operated on Oak, Stanyon, Page, Devisadero and Sutter streets. This route was covered twice. On the first trip, mounted police acted as outriders and more than a score of patrolmen rode in automobiles, but no violence was offered by the crowds. On the second trip, the mounted officers were withdrawn as an experiment to determine the temper of the crowds; missiles were hurled from buildings and several persons were injured.

Deplorable Situation.

Assistant President Mullaly said today he had several hundred strikebreakers quartered in the company's barns, and that they are competent to operate practically the entire car system. Mayor Schmitz said the police department "is competent to cope with the situation." Chief of Police Dinan said his men will preserve order. Meantime, the population of San Francisco is deprived of a street car service, subjected to the alternative of walking or paying five prices for an execrable wagon service.

Reduced to an arithmetical aspect, the problem is simply this: If 50 police are required to afford safe conduct to two street cars daily, over six miles of track, when no passengers are carried, how shall 200 cars be operated in passenger traffic and over 25 miles of tracks with a total force of only 700 policemen, not more than half of whom can be on duty continuously?

That the running of two or three cars a day may constitute the entire street car service for a city of 300,000 people, for an indefinite time, is perfectly apparent unless an adequate protective force is supplied.

Strikers Are Cheered.

This afternoon's first car trip was a pleasant one. In passing the Majestic hotel, at Sutter and Gough streets, women in the streets threw armfuls of flowers from the windows of the hotel into the street. They were picked up and distributed among the strikebreakers operating the cars. At various points, particularly Van Ness avenue and Sutter street, citizens stood up in automobiles and cheered the nonunion men lustily. The men acknowledged these salutes by touching their hats. On Oak street near Lyon, the driver of a loaded brewery wagon showed signs of a purpose to blockade the cars. He was clubbed on the arm and put to rout. Assistant to President Mullaly, Chief Sergeant Coffey, Assistant Superintendent Christensen, and "Sandy" McNaughton, the well known turfman, alighted from automobiles at Oak street opposite the Panhandle, and boarded one of the cars. With the exception of several newspaper men, they were the first passengers to ride since the commencement of the strike. A nonunion conductor, a Kentucky youth, collected five fares from McNaughton and "knocked them down." He handed the quarter to Mullaly as a souvenir—the first money taken in by the United Railroads since the tieup of the system last Sunday.

There were several unpleasant features to mar the second trip, which was begun three minutes after the first was completed. On the run back from Larkin street, Police Captain Gleason's automobile broke down and a delay of 20 minutes was occasioned.

Small Boy Cheered.

While the cars were standing and the chauffeur was tinkering at his car, a man in the crowd yelled "scab." Detective Sergeant Hook spotted the fellow and collared him after a desperate tussle. In the turmoil a three-year-old boy was knocked down and severely trampled. When Sergeant Hook searched his prisoner he found his pockets filled with iron bolts and pieces of gas pipe. The man was arrested.

At Devisadero and McAllister streets three carpenters at work on a building hurled bricks from upper stories. Three of the missiles struck J. Hosper, a real estate man, who was acting as Captain Gleason's chauffeur, in the face. Several of his teeth were dislodged and his mouth was cut. Another of the bricks hit Officer Murphy on the nose. He bled profusely. The procession of cars and autos was halted for half an hour while the police raided the building. They caught, clubbed and arrested the three union carpenters. At Shrader and Oak streets a brick was hurled from a building in course of erection and struck Chief Timekeeper Maynard on the wrist. The officers searched the building, but were unable to find the assailant. The crowds today, which pressed about the cars, were neither so large nor so demonstrative as those of previous days. The significance of this was lessened by the fact that the route was not made known until a few minutes before starting.

The United Railroads purpose sending out two or more cars tomorrow morning if the crowds will allow them to be operated as far as Market street. The general labor situation in this city remains virtually unchanged.

MEET GREAT SUCCESS

YOUNG ATHLETES COMPETE IN ANNUAL A. C. L. EVENT.

Liller, Lowell, Steele and Midland Schools Victorious. Charles Cheese a Star.

Liller, Class A.
Lowell, Class B.
Steele, Class C.
Midland, Class C.
Charles Cheese, Washington, Class A.
Rex Stivers, Garfield, Class C.
Gordin Davis, Steele, Class C.
Melvin Ward, Ivywild, Class D.

In the presence of 4,000 cheering boys and girls and men and women, the annual Anticigarette league field and track meet was held on Washburn field yesterday afternoon and the above schools and individuals carried off first honors in their respective classes. The meet was the most successful ever held by the league, there being 30 schools represented and 162 contestants. The schools winning first place in the A, B, C and D classes will be awarded silver loving cups. Individual winners will receive badges.

The feature of the meet as far as individual work was concerned was the performance of Charles Cheese, of the Washington school. His team received 23 points, and 20 of these were made by Cheese. He made the 100-yard dash in :11 4-5, a remarkable performance for a lad of only 15 years. In the running broad jump, he covered 17 feet and five inches.

The day was ideal for holding such a meet and long before 3 o'clock, the youthful rooters began to gather on the bleachers. Soon special street cars, loaded with cheering boys and girls, arrived and the seats in the grandstand and bleachers were filled, each school being assigned to a particular section decorated with the colors of the school. The High school battalion patrolled the grounds.

Physical Director Erps and Secretary Arnold of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. were in direct charge of the meet, which was given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. For several months, Messrs. Erps and Arnold have been coaching the young athletes and preparing them for the meet.

The averages of the teams and individual contestants were not completed until 1 o'clock this (Saturday) morning.

Following are the winners, both in-

MOB AFTER BLOOD

ATTEMPTS LYNCHING OF BUTTE POLICE OFFICER.

TROUBLE DUE TO SHOOTING

Prisoner Tries to Escape and Is Shot by Officer.—Brother of Dead Man Makes Impassioned Speech to Crowd, and Leads Mob to Attack Jail.

BUTTE, Mont., May 10.—Patrol Driver Charles Jackson tonight shot and killed Harry Cole, while the latter was attempting to escape, and an incensed mob, led by Brothers of Cole, made an ineffectual attempt to lynch Detective Charles McGarvey, the crowd laboring under the impression that it was that officer who had done the shooting.

Cole had been arrested by McGarvey on a forgery charge, and was suspected of being one of two bandits who several days ago held up the North Coast Limited on the Northern Pacific, at Welch's Spur, murdering Engineer Clow and wounding Fireman Sullivan. Cole is a brother of George Cole, who is now serving a 21-year sentence in the penitentiary for the robbery of the Burlington Flyer near this city two years ago.

Fleeing Prisoner Shot.

Harry Cole has been under surveillance of the officers since the holdup of the North Coast Limited, and this evening was taken into custody. While he was being sweated in the office of the chief of police, Cole, it is said, defiantly said that he knew all about the holdup of the Limited, and made a dash from the room and ran down an alley leading from the police station. An officer started for Cole, but tripped over the threshold of the door

MOYER SERVED TIME AT JOLIET?

CHICAGO JOURNAL PRINTS SENSATIONAL STORY.

REPUTATION AS A "BAD MAN"

WAS GIVEN YEAR IN PENITENTIARY FOR BURGLARY.

HAS BAD RECORD IN CHICAGO

President of Western Federation of Miners, About to Be Tried for Complicity in Killing of Steunenberg, Said to Be Guilty of Other Crimes.

CHICAGO, May 10.—In a story appearing in the Journal today it is alleged that Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, who is about to be tried at Boise, Idaho, for complicity in the killing of former Governor Frank Steunenberg, served as a convict in the Joliet penitentiary in this state in 1886 and 1887. The date of his discharge is said to have been January 4, 1887.

Moyer was sentenced from Cook county on February 4, 1886, according to the Journal, to serve one year for burglary. The official record of the Joliet prison in the case is said to be as follows:

Alleged Prison Record.

Name, Charles H. Moyer; number, 7457; sentenced from Cook county, February 4, 1886; age, 20 years; term, one year for burglary; height, 5 feet 8 inches; weight, 150 pounds; complexion, medium dark; color of eyes, hazel; color of hair, dark brown; occupation, farm hand from Iowa; discharged January 4, 1887.

At 1 o'clock the offices of the warden of the Joliet prison declared that during the period mentioned by the Journal, a man bearing the name of Charles H. Moyer was an inmate of the prison. His number was declared to be identical with that given above.

The records of the Chicago police department show the following entries under the date of December 4, 1885, the name of the prisoner being given as C. "S." Moyer in each instance:

Chicago Police Record.

C. S. Moyer, alias Fred Baker, burglary; complainant, Ingoor Larson, 721 West Lake street. John Keating, burglary, the same complainant.

C. S. Moyer, alias Fred Baker, burglary; Swen T. Johnson, 55 Northwestern avenue.

C. S. Moyer, alias Fred Baker, robbery; W. S. Newell, 45 Warren avenue.

C. S. Moyer, alias Fred Baker, robbery; C. E. Murphy, 108 Michigan avenue.

C. S. Moyer, alias Fred Baker, attempted robbery; Jacob Emans, 29 Walnut street.

C. S. Moyer, alias Fred Baker, carrying concealed weapons; John Hartnett.

In all the above cases duplicate charges were filed against John Keating, who was said to have been a partner of Moyer in the crimes committed.

Story of Arrest.

The arrest was made on the morning of December 4, 1885, according to the Journal's story, by Patrolman John Hartnett, who is now a lieutenant at the West Lake street police station and was for a time an inspector. Hartnett was walking north on Wood street toward Warren avenue, when he heard men running behind him. He stepped into the shadow of a tree and when the men approached he stopped them and asked them where they were going. They said they were going home. Hartnett then asked one of the men, who was later identified as Keating what his name was. Keating replied: "John Kelly."

"What is your name?" asked Hartnett of the other man. "Fred Baker," was the reply.

The man giving the name of Baker opened his coat as he spoke and Hartnett caught sight of a revolver. He at once struck the man across the face with his club, knocking him senseless.

Keating turned and ran, but was brought to a halt by Hartnett's threat to shoot him if he did not stop. According to the story printed by the Journal, Hartnett waited until the man who was afterward declared to be Moyer recovered his senses and then marched both men to the patrol box at Wood and Madison streets, where he was joined by Patrolman Thomas Hennessey, who is still connected with the Lake street station. Here Keating made an attempt to escape, but was recaptured. Both men were then taken to the Lake street station. There, according to the Journal, Moyer first gave the name of Fred Baker and then said his name was Charles Moyer. Keating made no further attempt to conceal his identity, and made a full confession of the crimes related above.

Held Under $5,000 Bond.

The two men were later held to the grand jury in bonds of $5,000 each, by Justice C. J. White, at the Des Plaines street police station.

January 26, 1886, the men were sentenced to Joliet penitentiary, Keating for two years and Moyer for one year. The charge on which the sentence was based was the burglary of Larson's clothing store, at 721 West Lake street.

Lieutenant Hartnett today corroborated all of the facts given above, and said that he had been told afterward that Moyer declared that had Hartnett been a little slower with his club, he would have been killed. Hartnett said today:

Reputation as "Bad Man."

"Moyer used to amuse himself in saloons by shooting pool balls into [illegible]

TIGERS TO PLAY AGGIES

BALL GAME AT FT. COLLINS THIS AFTERNOON.

Morris Injured—Mitchell Also Out. Miners and College Will Lock Horns Wednesday

The Tigers will meet the Aggies at Fort Collins this afternoon in a championship baseball game. In the last game between these two teams the score stood 2 to 0 in favor of the Tigers. This afternoon they hope to add another victory to their list. While at practice Thursday night Morris the college right fielder whose home run in the game with the Aggies saved the day for the Tigers was hit in the right eye by a pitched ball and painfully injured. He will be out of the game for several weeks. Mitchell the Tigers catcher is also out of the game on account of the recent death of his father. Siddons will be behind the bat and Hyder will play in the field.

Captain Tegtmeyer will be in charge of the team which is in the best of condition. Next Wednesday afternoon the Tigers will again meet the Miners on Washburn field. Tickets will be out Monday and may be secured at Strang's or the C. & S. ticket office.

PUEBLO, May 10—In the tenth round of what was scheduled to be a [illegible] round contest Kid Texas of Pueblo tonight knocked out Roxy Roach of Sedalia, Mo.

The fight was even up to this time and it was while the fighters were breaking away in a clinch that Texas slipped a short left to the jaw. Roach tried to hang on but was counted out.

Roach and Texas recently fought a twenty round draw.

MEN FIGHT TO A DRAW

No Decision in Sullivan-Kelly Mill at Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, May 10—Jack (Twin) Sullivan of Boston and Hugo Kelly of Chicago fought twenty rounds to a draw before the Pacific Athletic club tonight. The decision made was received by the crowd with entire satisfaction.

Neither man was very badly hurt. [illegible] Kelly scored the only knockdown of the fight in the fourth round. He sent Sullivan to the mat with a left to the point of the jaw. The latter recovered quickly however and finished the round without any trouble. In the eighth round Kelly knocked Sullivan to his knees with a blow that landed below the belt. Referee Burns motioned Kelly aside warning him about the foul. The Boston fighter recovered almost on the instant and seemed uninjured.

The seventeenth was the best round of the fight. Kelly rushed throughout the entire three minutes and both fought with [illegible] the Chicago fighter having the better.

COLORADO COLLEGE WINS

Tigers Defeat Denver University in Intercollegiate Debate on Labor Question

Colorado college was victorious over Denver university last night in the intercollegiate debate between the two institutions held at Perkins hall. The subject debated was: "Resolved, That disputes between labor and capital in public utilities should be settled by compulsory arbitration." Colorado college was represented by James I. Muffley, James K. McClintock and Gleason Lake. Denver university was represented by C. J. Mikkelson, C. J. Veazie and W. C. Milliken. The judges of the debate were Dr. James B. Gregg, C. W. Dolph and Judge R. F. Kerr of Colorado Springs. The vote stood 2 to 1 in favor of Colorado college.

NEWS OF THE LOCAL COURTS

Georgia Goodrich, a woman prisoner in the county jail, was yesterday sentenced by Justice W. N. Binks to serve 60 days for vagrancy under unusual circumstances. On the woman's person was found an opal ring belonging to Naomi Alsbury, a juvenile offender who was confined in jail for one day. The girl did not know how the ring disappeared and the Goodrich woman also disclaimed all knowledge of its appearance on her person.

Detective Burno yesterday arrested William Lett, a negro wanted by the Kansas City authorities on a charge of wholesale land frauds. Lett, who has been working at the Antlers livery for about a week, will be held here pending the arrival of a Kansas City officer. He was arrested at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

E. G. Davis yesterday filed suit in the district court against Hubert Strang asking that he be ousted from the place ... building at 11 119 North Tejon street and also that he pay $30 damages for forcible detainer. Davis claims that Strang's lease expired April 4 and that he has refused to move despite notice to do so.

Judge W. S. Morris, in the district court yesterday, denied the motion of the defendant to quash the criminal information against P. C. Dockstader on three statutory charges, and the court proceeded with the selection of jurors, which will be continued today.

Sylvia Seward and Hazel Currier, two 15-year-old runaway girls from Denver, were picked up by the local police yesterday and returned to their parents last night. The girls, who had $3 between them, bought half fare tickets to this city yesterday morning because they wanted to see the state.

James W. Powell, the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Powell of 2105 North Weber street, disappeared from home yesterday and the police have been asked to aid in locating him. He is a pupil at the Steel school. He is heavy set and well built and wears a dark blue suit.

Carrie I. Hall yesterday secured a divorce in the district court from Harry M. Hall on grounds of nonsupport.

John Clark, who was in trouble several weeks ago in a charge filed by his sister-in-law, was fined $20 and costs in police court yesterday for disturbance. The charge was preferred by Mrs. M. Henderson of Fairview.

Direct information charging assault with intent to kill were filed in the district court yesterday against John Dockerty, Mary Binks, colored, and Henry Morrison. The cases ... all from the justice courts.

the residents of the Cripple Creek district.

Reception to visiting ladies by the women of the Cripple Creek district.

Entertainment of the men visitors by the Cripple Creek club.

General rejoicing throughout the state, with the day observed as a general holiday through the Cripple Creek district.

Great Work Starts Today

Today's the day. The beginning of work on the long projected Cripple Creek drainage tunnel will be celebrated by festivities participated in by the most prominent mining and business men of the leading cities and towns in the state.

The members of the local Mining Exchange will attend to a man. They will join the Denver delegation in a special train at 9:30 o'clock this morning, the united contingent proceeding to Cripple Creek. A special car will be reserved for the ladies making the trip.

Acting Governor F. R. Harper will press the gold button which connects the ponderous machinery with the electric power that is to work wonders in the Cripple Creek district. Miss Marguerite Frey, the handsome Denver girl who was recently pronounced the most beautiful woman in Colorado, will formally christen the tunnel. Attending her as maids of honor will be Miss Eva Lewis, also of Denver, and Miss Ruth Chincher of Salida, who were second and third respectively in the beauty contest. Mrs. Harper, wife of the acting governor, has consented to act as matron of honor. The ladies will be met by a special committee in this city consisting of Miss Heizer, Mrs. E. W. Giddings, Mrs. Henry Russell Wray, Mrs. E. A. Sawyer and Mrs. C. T. Fertig, who will accompany them to the gold camp, where they will be received by Mrs. A. L. Carlton, Mrs. C. A. Gillette, Mrs. Van Tilborg, Mrs. J. Fitzell, Mrs. C. F. Elliott and Mrs. Nelson Franklin.

Free Carriages for All

All the visitors will be met at Cripple Creek by a reception committee from that city and Victor. Carriages will be provided free and will form a procession led by the Midland band, Cook's drum corps and the other bands of the state. The arrival of the trains will be greeted with whistles from the big mines and mills. American flags and bunting will be displayed with lavish hand on all business houses and in the residence district and the entire district will enter into the spirit of the celebration.

The principal address at the official ceremonies at the tunnel portal will be delivered by Victor C. Alderson, president of the State School of Mines. Brief speeches will be made by Mayor Van Tilborg of Cripple Creek, Mayor Williams of Victor, Mayor Heizer of this city and A. J. Spengel, president of the Denver board of supervisors, representing Mayor Speer of that city.

To Use Historic Key.

The Robinson Drug company of this city has donated a bottle of the best champagne to be broken by Miss Frey in christening the tunnel. Chairman Burris of the general arrangement committee has secured the telegraph key used in sending the first message between this country and England several years ago. This key will be utilized in setting the machinery in motion.

As though even the elements were aiding in the grand boost for the Cripple Creek district, the sun shone all day yesterday in camp for the first time since April 21. Two inches of mud on the ground dried between morning and sunset and the county commissioners of Teller county yesterday spent the day in putting into excellent shape the road between Cripple Creek and the Gatch park portal, about five miles south.

A feature of the celebration will be joint participation therein of representatives from all parts of the state. This city especially has responded nobly to the occasion. The Chamber of Commerce has come to the fore with the other organizations and will be well represented in the festivities. The Real Estate exchange yesterday appointed the following committee to represent the body: A. W. Chisholm, W. F. Johnson, O. C. Black, J. S. Thomas, E. R. Stark, J. J. Franklin, T. H. Thedinga, D. W. Thomas, C. J. Wright and J. H. Plummer.

DENTISTS MEET—The regular monthly banquet and conference of the Colorado Springs Dental association was held in the Antlers hotel last night. After the banquet several addresses were made on "table clinics." Plans are being made for the State Dental association convention, which will be held in Colorado Springs the latter part of June.

FREIGHT WRECK — Seventeen freight cars, 10 of which were badly shattered, were piled up on the Santa Fe track at a point nearly four miles north of this city yesterday morning as a result of a wreck caused by a broken wheel. Traffic was resumed on a sidetrack built around the wreck. Wrecking crews from Denver and Pueblo aided in clearing the debris. The track will probably be cleared today.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT—Bion J. Arnold, the prominent Chicago electrical engineer, who is well known in this city, sustained a peculiar accident in Chicago last Tuesday. He was cranking his automobile when a jerk of the lever threw him against the machine, his teeth cutting his tongue nearly in two. Mr. Arnold drove the auto several miles to a physician, who took several stitches in the lacerated tongue.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS RECEIVED BY THE ELY COMMISSION & DEVELOPMENT COMPANY

Mr. John H. White, president of the Ely Commission and Development Co., in speaking of the new company, says in his opinion the possibilities for money making in the Ely mining district are illuminated just now, and he feels sure there is a great future before their company.

In a letter just received from Mr. Schwalbe, ... who has been in Ely for some time, he says there is great excitement over several big strikes that have been made lately ... the Development company's property, but outside of the known copper area. There has been a great discovery of lead and silver as well as copper, and some gold, and there is no doubt that all the metal will be found on their property, and which development work will start in earnest in a very short time. The company has options on several pieces of property in other districts, whose owners want the Development company to prospect for them on the usual terms.

If the properties prove up as they are represented to be, the Development company will get the best and put them on the market, which will mean sure profits for the stockholders, as they would handle such a company on commission, and from the tests of the assays made from ore that was sent here to be tested, the chances of the stockholders of any such company promoted would be most flattering. He says he believes that those who fail to get some of the Development company's stock now on sale at the present price are missing a great opportunity for profitable investment.

When the curiosity of all those present was satisfied the babe was handed back to the mistress of the robes and by the latter was given to the royal nurse, who immediately returned to the side of the queen.

Throngs Cheer

As the nurse appeared in the royal apartments a roar of cheering could be heard from the outside of the palace. In the meantime the ... streets outside were ... beyond description. Business had been suspended for hours previous to the announcement of the child's birth. An immense multitude gathered in the vicinity of the palace and when the royal standard of red and gold ... up to the peak of the flagstaff on the Punta Dediamente, making known that a prince of the Asturias was born, a great shout of joy went up from the assembled masses.

Immediately afterward a salute of 21 guns carried the news to the most remote confines of the city and the inhabitants of the surrounding country. As the sixteenth report resounded (15 guns only would have been fired to announce the birth of a girl) the men, women and children waiting in the streets and on the balconies and roofs gave voice to their satisfaction and soon the whole city was ringing with cries of "Long live the prince," "Long live the queen" and "Long live the king."

Simultaneously the public buildings blossomed out as if by magic with the Spanish colors, and singing, dancing and otherwise rejoicing almost the entire population of the city began streaming in the direction of the palace.

Is Prince of Asturias.

A son born today will according to decree of the Spanish government, bear the title of prince of the Asturias.

The principality of the Asturias was formerly the mountain refuge of the aboriginal inhabitants of Spain who remained there until conquered alike by Roman and Moor. In many respects the Asturias is regarded as the cradle of the Spanish monarchy, hence the pride taken in the title of the prince of the Asturias.

Queen Victoria, the mother of the royal infant, was married to King Alfonso at Madrid on May 31, 1906, amid scenes of the greatest splendor, followed by the horror of a bomb explosion which killed scores of people and narrowly missed the royal coach in which their majesties were returning from church.

Considerable etiquette and publicity attend the birth of a royal child in Madrid. King Alfonso April 3 signed a decree ordering the necessary preparations for the presentation of the child to the high officials of Spain and the diplomatic representatives accredited at Madrid immediately after the birth.

LONDON, May 10.—The lord mayor of London, Sir William Treloar, requested the Spanish embassy here to convey to the king and queen of Spain the delight of the citizens of London over the birth of the royal infant.

There was rejoicing on the Isle of Wight, where Princess Ena was very popular. The governor of the island cabled congratulations.

pockets with his revolver, and he had the general reputation at that time of being a bad man.

John Keating died while a convict in the Joliet prison and one of his brothers, Charles Keating, who is now a prisoner in the county jail, said today:

"We always knew that Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, was the man who was sent to the penitentiary with my brother John. I do not remember him ... If he is, tried it all with ... until I saw ... I ... heard my folks speak of him. After Moyer got out of the penitentiary he used to write to a mutual acquaintance, Samuel Williams, and Sam used to read the letters to us. One time Sam came over with a paper telling how Charles Moyer had been made the head of the miners' union."

Cause of Son's Downfall

Mrs. Keating, the mother of John Keating, ... accuses Moyer of being the cause of her son's downfall. She said:

"Charles Moyer left Chicago as soon as he got out of the penitentiary, but for a long he wrote to Sam Williams, who lived next door to us, and Williams later went to Missouri and we have not heard from him since."

The Journal ... prints a story dated Boone, Ia., which is substantially as follows:

Frank S. Moyer, chief of police of Boone for four years and now a conductor on a street car line here, is a brother of Charles H. Moyer. He said today to a Journal correspondent:

"I heard that Charles got into trouble in Chicago once and was arrested. Probably the less said about it the better. I know that Charles went to Chicago in 1884 or 1885 and was gone about a year and a half. I did not hear from him during that time. Later Charles went to Deadwood and then to Denver. I have often heard Charles speak of Sam Williams, but I never saw Williams myself."

SATURDAY MAY 11 1907

GO TO CRIPPLE CREEK TODAY

TODAY the construction of the new drainage tunnel, which is to bring new life to the Cripple Creek District, is to be formally begun. Special trains will carry several hundred enthusiasts from Denver and Colorado Springs to the scene of operations; two-minute speeches will be made by a few men who may be [illegible] stop when their two-minute allowance is up; the prize beauty of the state will break a bottle of something wet on the rocky surface which will soon be nothing but a hole in the hill and the big bore will be officially christened. The Roosevelt Deep Drainage Tunnel. 'Roosevelt tunnel' [illegible]. Down in Arizona the Government is building the Roosevelt dam — said to be the biggest in the world — a [illegible] a great irrigation project. [illegible] Cripple Creek [illegible] to have a hole in the ground likewise named in honor of our strenuous Chief Executive. Maybe he will show his appreciation by buying a few thousand shares of mining stock.

But what we started out to say is that the beginning of work on the new tunnel with the assurance that it will be finished [illegible] the biggest thing that has happened in the Cripple Creek District in ten years. It means that the [illegible] of the camp will be at least doubled and that another one hundred or one hundred and twenty millions will be added to its production. It means new prosperity for every resident of the camp, every owner of Cripple Creek mining shares, and indirectly for everybody in Colorado Springs, for the business of the Exchange is sure to be stimulated to something like the activity of the old days.

In view of these facts—and they are facts—is it not worth while to drop everything else and take a day off and swell the crowd of boosters who will go up to the big gold camp to see that the thing is done as it should be done? It will only cost a dollar and a half for a round trip ticket and the fun will be worth ten times the amount. Better go.

HOW BALTIMORE GOT HONEST GOVERNMENT.

WILLIAM E. CURTIS, the correspondent, writes a letter to the Chicago Record-Herald in which he tells interestingly of the political regeneration of Baltimore. A few years ago one of the worst misgoverned cities in the country, but now one of the best governed. Inasmuch as all of the large cities and most of the small ones are fighting the same battle, it is well to know how the people of the Maryland metropolis went about it. In a word, the change was brought about through the persistent, not spasmodic efforts of an independent press to get the people interested in, not excited about, the government of their city.

Fifteen years ago Baltimore was controlled absolutely by a Democratic machine [illegible] organization and thoroughly corrupt. Offices were filled at the dictation of bosses and legislation was bought and sold. One of the strong bulwarks of the machine was a lottery which carried on extensive operations in defiance of law. It had existed for years because of its political backing; nobody had the courage to attack it. Finally certain newspapers threw down the gauntlet and went after the lottery [illegible]. The editors were promptly indicted on charges of criminal libel by a politically controlled grand jury, and after a long trial were acquitted. This was the beginning of the downfall [illegible] that got so much publicity [illegible] the first time just how [illegible].

PERSISTENCE FINALLY WINS BIG VICTORY [illegible]

[illegible]

It has been a notable [illegible] the [illegible]. Its present Mayor is a man named Timanus, of whom Mr. Curtis says: "Previous to assuming the responsibility of the mayoralty his record in the common council was far from satisfactory to the reformers. He was denounced as a boodler, but when he stepped into the Mayor's shoes he became a different man. There has been no scandal in his administration. It has been honest, clean and satisfactory to all concerned, and his political opponents admit as much with commendable candor."

METHODS EMPLOYED ARE NOVEL [illegible]

[illegible] In every other city the result has only come about after some great upheaval which thoroughly aroused public opinion, such as the gas steal exposure in Philadelphia and the traction boodle case in St. Louis. But the reform accomplished at such times is likely to resemble some of the "conversions" effected at the old-fashioned "camp meeting revivals"—too much the creature of the emotions to be permanent. A few days ago we commented on the backsliding of Philadelphia and the same thing has already happened or is likely to happen in other cities that have been inundated by the reform wave in the last two or three years.

There is no doubt that if reform can be brought about, as it seems to have been in Baltimore, by the slow, steady growth of a public sentiment for honesty and efficiency, its results will be more lasting than those attained by the emotional method. But the difficulty is found in arousing sentiment by this means. The vast majority of the people in every community have no desire to listen to even the clearest expositions of the theory and practice of government and when it comes to maintaining a continuing interest in the subject the task is well-nigh hopeless. They can be startled into action by sensational disclosures of big graft or by outrageous election frauds but after the excitement of the moment has passed they relapse into the normal state of indifference which makes misgovernment not only possible but inevitable.

Baltimore's experience is so unusual that it will be watched with interest by students of municipal government to see whether the conditions now so satisfactory are to be any more permanent than those obtained by the more usual methods of reform.

George Harvey, editor of Harper's Weekly, thinks so well of his recent speech roasting the President that he has printed it in his publication for the second time. This week it comes out in the form of a supplement to which is added about 200 press comments, probably four-fifths of which agree that Mr. Harvey made an unmitigated chump of himself. But it's all the same to Mr. Harvey—for advertising purposes.

Some of the papers are suggesting that President Roosevelt's defiance of a certain type of labor unionism in his Moyer-Haywood letters is to be construed as proof that he doesn't intend to run for a third term. It shows anyway that he certainly doesn't intend to bid for the votes of Mr. Honore Jaxon and his crew.

A Denver man has incorporated a flying machine company to do a general freight and passenger business via aerial route. The only thing that now stands in the way of the complete success of the scheme is a slight difficulty in finding a flying machine that will fly.

As soon as the recent peace conference assembled in New York the police department of that city began to round up everybody who carried a gun. It isn't always possible to tell just what kind of a scrap a peace conference will break up in.

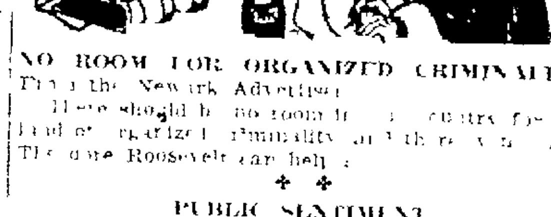

Ellen Terry at the age of [illegible] has just married her third husband, who is twenty-four years her junior. What is there in the atmosphere of the stage that causes men and women to make fools of themselves in matrimonial matters?

Silent Smith's will shows that he was the possessor of only $[illegible] instead of [illegible] as was generally supposed. [illegible] twenty-five million is enough [illegible] of talking for a silent man.

The contractors who swindled the state of Pennsylvania on the new capitol building are to be prosecuted, but of course [illegible] persecution and then serve as martyrs instead of grafters.

In Santo Domingo anybody who opposes the President is put in jail. In this country he is merely elected to membership in the Ananias Club.

Abe Ruef says he is afraid he can't get justice in San Francisco. What he is really afraid of is that he will get justice.

THE TYRANNY OF LABOR

From the San Francisco Argonaut

The point at which labor [illegible] is holding back the work of reconstruction in San Francisco and in unreasonably augmenting its cost is not so much in the increased wage rate as in regulations and exactions of other kinds. Labor is discrediting itself more by narrowness, selfishness, a surly attitude toward employers, a disposition to slight its work, and a spirit of indifference.

FUTILITY OF APPEAL

From the Detroit Free Press

And in spite of all the previous failures to secure reversal of judgment the device of appeal to Washington is resorted to just as hopefully in each new case as though all these prior cases had demonstrated its success. As a matter of fact the removal of capital cases to the federal jurisdiction has degenerated into a mere device through which [illegible] the money to pay the expense [illegible] months [illegible]. There is of course a possibility [illegible] might be [illegible] but [illegible] can be recalled in which at least in recent years such a case was disclosed.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

From the Washington Post

The wail of certain railroad pessimists is like an infant crying in the night compared with the mighty roar of business that goes up from every community in the United States. Reports to the financial and commercial agencies from every quarter reveal an activity in manufacture, building, industry, distribution and agriculture that is nothing less than amazing. Where is the enormous output of last year? It is not only consumed, but the consumers are hungrily calling for more. The steel and iron mills are worked to their capacity with orders piling up. The demand for pig iron is greater than ever, although the facilities for turning it out have been largely increased.

In the south the energy of the people is astonishing even themselves. Their output of farm and manufactured goods has embarrassed the railroads, while their demand for supplies of all kinds more than fills the returning cars. In the west the situation is much the same, except that the scarcity of labor has retarded work in many ways. The cry everywhere is for able-bodied men who can do heavy work. They are wanted on the farms, in the mills, and in railroading. Many railroad companies, in spite of the concerted howling of the railroad managers, are extending their lines and increasing their rolling stock in the endeavor to cope with increased business.

It may be that some railroad companies are having a little trouble in getting construction money as cheaply as they would like, but that does not affect the public at all. The railroads would like to borrow money at 3 or 3½ per cent, but the chances are that they will have to stand their share of prosperity and pay higher rates for their money. There is little doubt that they will come to it when the demand for freight facilities becomes so insistent that it will not be ignored. In some parts of the country this condition has been reached already, and the railroads are hurrying to meet the demand without regard to the money rates.

In spite of a cold and backward spring the prospects for good crops is excellent throughout the country. The snow that made up such a prominent part of April's ministrations is said to have done grain more good than harm. Spring appears finally to have arrived and warm weather may be looked for during the rest of this month. The change will still further stimulate business.

The season of marvelous prosperity seething about us in the United States seems to be as far from its close as it was last spring. The little cloud conjured up by the railroad managers was no bigger than a man's hand and even that seems to have evaporated.

PASSION FOR EDUCATION

From the Chicago Tribune

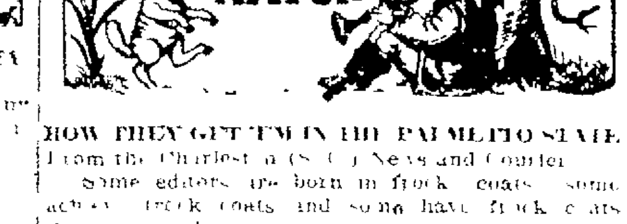

The greatest single characteristic of the people of the middle west is their passion for education. This is the declaration of the veteran president of the University of Michigan made before a recent Chicago gathering of the alumni of that institution. It is his usual answer when a visitor from a foreign land asks him to indicate a distinguishing feature of the people of this part of the United States.

President Angell's view carries weight because of his long years of service and it finds illustration in every community. The people manifest great interest in their school. They spend money freely for fine buildings. They pay school taxes cheerfully. The reputation for having good schools is one in which they swell with pride. Some of the high schools of the middle west are far better equipped at the present time than many a noted college was a half century ago.

The [illegible] thing is shown by the normal schools which are designed primarily for the training of teachers to man the public schools better. They are growing in importance and influence every year. [illegible] with thoroughly efficient [illegible] them have an unexcelled [illegible] pattern. Their progress reflects the [illegible] best possible instruction for the children.

In the colleges is the same thing is noticeable. The number of students is increasing at a steady rate. More still are constantly being supplied in the form of [illegible]. In the case of the state universities [illegible] their programmes. The best trained men of the country are attracted by the offers of place. It is a record of unexampled prosperity for the higher institutions.

The meaning of all this for the future of the country is plain. As President Angell says, what is evidently now before all the nation is to [illegible] for the sons and daughters of the people. But there is a practical problem which is becoming more and more perplexing to college authorities. It is how to handle the crowd of students which press forward for instruction. If the increase of the student body goes on some of these universities may have 10,000 or more enrolled within a few years. To house them and furnish them adequate instruction will demand larger endowments and buildings more professors. The average western college no longer does much canvassing for students. The problem is not to get the boys and girls to go to college, but what to do with them when they come. The only hope is that the passion for education will develop the interest of men of wealth who will be willing to furnish the needed funds to satisfy it.

Little Stories of Fact and Fancy

From the New York Times

PASSENGERS in street cars have often noticed enigmatic cards in the advertising spaces, cards bearing some nonsensical word or sentence, or sometimes merely a picture, apparently expressive of nothing in particular.

Very few laymen know that they are what are known to the advertising man as "teasers." Series of them are known as "teasing sets," a new one appearing each week for a time, each equally inexplicable and equally provoking to arouse the curiosity of the passenger. In fact, that is just what they are for—to arouse curiosity.

These teasers are the very latest thing in up to date advertising according to an authority on the subject. In explaining the use of these unique advertisements, for advertisements they are, this man says he is an enthusiastic advocate of that method of arousing the public interest in the specialty which some company has to exploit. He says that by running a series of these teasers for several weeks the average man or woman who rides in the street cars looks at that very advertising space each time he or she gets on the car, trying to reason out what the absurd illustration or words mean, or hoping that the solution might be there. Sometimes the advertising people think maybe only a few irregular outlines of a grotesque little man.

Anything out of the ordinary, he continued, will catch the average advertisement reader. Often after a setting of teasers the advertising [illegible] will be tested by the phone calls inquiring what it all means. That shows the interest [illegible]. When the teaser [illegible] enough and the real advertisement appears with the space with the teaser has completed the attraction [illegible] other advertisement in the car.

A proof of the efficiency of these teasers was shown in St. Louis, where a breakfast food [illegible] explanatory advertisement [illegible] [illegible] King [illegible] certainly the [illegible].

Telephone Decorations

Near the open door of a telephone booth [illegible] [illegible] number [illegible] paper and pencil [illegible] of booths to the [illegible] remove them from the shelf.

Now look at that [illegible] could perceive the sheets of paper to the other [illegible] found them to be covered with odd drawings of an automobile, [illegible] revolver and a curling iron. Also there was a number of faces and telephone numbers.

New York at the walls of the booth [illegible] manager.

[illegible] both sides were found to be covered with pretty much the same thing [illegible] the shelf also had its decorations.

"Many of these things," said the manager, "were done by persons while they were waiting for the number they had called to answer. At such moments the mind seems to fly to vacancies and the hand unconsciously draws whatever may float through it at the moment. In many cases [illegible] may observe, people write their own names, the telephone number they are after, and also draw the article they are ordering. It is all unconscious, or a large share of it is, though some of it is [illegible] imitation of the hypnotic [illegible] session set up by the presence of the handiwork of others in the booth.

"So that is the reason that I removed the paper and pencil which was left in the booth, for invariably when the paper is full the work overflows and [illegible] the rest [illegible] hypnotic suggestion there [illegible]."

Gallantry Under Difficulties

The stabbing of two young men who [illegible] [illegible] all the women who write to [illegible] [illegible] happens [illegible] [illegible] a woman was [illegible] [illegible] to work [illegible] [illegible].

Devotion Personified

"The personal devotion of pupils sometimes takes unexpected turns," said the principal of one of the big boys' schools. "I used to teach in a boys' grammar school down on Henry street. Several of the little fellows got into the habit of coming to my desk at the noon recess and [illegible] [illegible] the task more [illegible] distinction above their fellows [illegible] [illegible] every tenth street [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] stamp with the remark [illegible] picked it off and took the letter up myself if I saved six cents for you."

Where the Nickels Go

The Man Who Goes About watched the collection agent take heaps of nickels of varying size from the boxes of the nickel in the slot telephones.

"What do you do with them all?" he asked.

"There are various ways of disposing of them," said the agent. "To begin with, we have an arrangement with one of the banks to take a certain percentage of them. Then too, I dispose of several dollars worth in each of the drug and cigar stores where these telephones are located. They are needed to give change to the customers, so that they can telephone. Then too, on my route I have a number of places near to the telephone stations which are always glad to have nickels in limited quantities."

The Man Who Goes About walked toward the druggist holding out a dollar bill.

"Give me a nickel, will you? I want to telephone," he said.

The agent offered him a package.

"Here's a dollar's worth," said he. Then as the Man Who Goes About took them gladly, as nickels are convenient in going about, he added:

"And that is another way it is to dispose of them."

Practical Application

A unique scheme of demonstrating [illegible] shown in the window display made by a hardware concern on upper Broadway. A papier mache mouse is "electrically" propelled along a series of grooves leading from an open money drawer to the [illegible]. In its nest a small stage mouse is seen holding a paper dollar in his mouth. This placard tells the story: "An actual fact. Mr. —— [illegible] clerk of [illegible] [illegible] disappearance of bills from his till. [illegible] young man was arrested, [illegible] his [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the clerk was proved innocent, but the mischief had been done; his career was blasted in his [illegible] open money drawer is a deadly [illegible] mouse take [illegible] from the cash drawer. [illegible] positive that [illegible] [illegible] experience of their [illegible] traps are intended to give a realistic thing to the surprised [illegible] of the grocery store."

Developing His Investment

A florist on the outskirts of the city has come across what he considers the meanest man in all New York.

He recently bought a [illegible] [illegible] nursery [illegible] [illegible] week ago he was entertaining some [illegible] friends and showed them around the neighborhood. In the course of it he [illegible] particularly those he brought them to my flower patch, which I have a number of large glasshouses. Wishing to display his wealth by purchasing something, he stopped at a cucumber frame and asked me the price of various specimens of that vegetable. I told him I charge one at 5 cents, another at [illegible] cents and [illegible] but Mr. Suddenwealth would have none of them. His eye fell on a particularly fine specimen. "How much?" he asked, pointing to it. I told him a cent. Mr. Croesus brought it a [illegible] bill. I couldn't change it just then, so I told him he could pay later. "Just put it on my [illegible]. Just as I was about to pull the cucumber he requested me to leave it where it was, as he would send his man for it in the evening. He went away smiling and sent his coachman to the nursery at the end of a week, by which time of course the tiny cucumber had lengthened into a huge and brilliant vegetable. What's more, he's forgotten to divy up the nickel.

Anxious to Accommodate

[illegible] in the [illegible] with the squirrels in the park and his store of peanuts [illegible] [illegible] was quite exhausted when a little gray beggar in search of breakfast thrust his small nose almost into her hand and then an[illegible] sat up looking at her empty hands [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

Two Subway Yarns

[illegible] interesting [illegible] [illegible].

"This is a strange town," said the man recently arrived from Chicago. "And what it is the easiest one to beat. If a man [illegible] to beat it intentionally. I did it unintentionally on my first day here. I entered a kiosk at one of the subway stations. At the gate on the platform sat a man in uniform near a box. I walked past him. He looked at me but said nothing. There was a train in the station and the doors of the cars were open. I entered the car. The train started. After a while I looked at my hand and found a nickel. I had not paid my fare. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] when I got into a surface car I forgot to pay my fare," said a woman who uses the subway a great deal. "On the subway, you see, you buy a ticket and drop it into a box and nobody in the car asks you for more fare. A few days ago I got on a Sixth avenue car. The conductor came through calling 'Fare, please.' He stopped in front of me and kept calling 'Fare.' I paid no attention to him. He persisted in his call and then I grew angry. 'Madame,' he said, 'have you paid your fare?' 'Yes—no,' I replied, taking a nickel out of my pocketbook. At the next corner I was glad to get off the car to escape the smiles of the passengers."

How He Caught the Clubs.

Once [illegible] remarked the Man Who Leans Against Bars, "I figured in a vaudeville act."

"Did you indeed?" said the Collector of Calls[illegible].

"It was one of those juggling acts. When I was a youth I was pretty clever at all that sort of thing, so I told an imitation Japanese professor that I'd help him out on the stage. All I had to do was to appear dressed like a Jap and catch a bunch of short clubs, you know the sort of kind which he threw [illegible] There were six clubs [illegible].

"We [illegible] [illegible] must take [illegible] stuck because when the fake Jap started to throw the clubs I failed to catch the first one in my hand."

"Well, that didn't matter, did it?" inquired the Collector of Local Color.

"Didn't matter," [illegible] the Man Who Leans Against Bars. "Didn't matter! Why, you blamed fool, I caught the other five clubs in my face!"

Qualities of the Oyster

A San Francisco [illegible] has discovered a new method of cutting short recitals that promise to be [illegible] long winded. An acquaintance of his who has [illegible] [illegible] was one day telling forth at some length with the Californian interrupted him with:

"[illegible] you the story of the oyster?"

On receiving a negative reply he continued:

"It [illegible] when oysters are taken from the sea they often open their shells [illegible] [illegible] runs out. A [illegible] experienced oyster [illegible] water close [illegible] the oyster is plunged [illegible] [illegible] begins to open its shell."

[illegible] what [illegible] asked the [illegible].

WITNESSES IN TRIAL

SPRINGS MEN TO TESTIFY IN MOYER-HAYWOOD CASE.

C C Hamlin, A E Carlton and Bulkeley Wells Will Be Called on for Evidence.

Among the witnesses summoned by the prosecution in the trial of the officials of the Western Federation of Miners now in progress in Boise Idaho are C C Hamlin of this city A E Carlton of this city and Cripple Creek and Bulkeley Wells formerly of Colorado Springs

Mr Hamlin is district attorney of the Fourth Judicial district including El Paso and Teller counties and is depended on by the state to prove a strong witness against the prisoners His close connection with the Mine Owners association of which he was secretary during the labor troubles in Colorado City and Cripple Creek is thought to have resulted in the attainment of evidence by him of strong damaging testimony against Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone

Mr Wells formerly adjutant general of the state and also president of the Smuggler Union mine at Telluride was one of the first to know of Orchard's famous confession implicating the inner circle of the Western Federation of Miners Immediately after Detective McParland had the confession before Adjutant General Wells the latter called a conference of Governor McDonald Chief Justice Gabbert and others to whom McParland repeated Orchard's confession

Mr Carlton as a heavy Cripple Creek mine operator and prominent factor in the Mine Owners association will also testify strongly against the defendants it is understood

PLEASE DON'T "GET SMART"

Give Your Prefix in All Cases if You Want to Be Sure of Getting Your Number.

The perplexing prefix please which central has been instructed to ask subscribers when they call for a telephone number is rapidly assuming tangled proportions

The order was first given that all numbers should have their proper prefix such as main red black etc Yesterday however several subscribers were told that only the number was necessary in main calls the prefix being required in all other cases One central girl admitted that she was not certain and referred a reporter to the information bureau The operator in charge of the bureau said that it is better to give the prefix in each case including that of main but that as she understands it is absolutely essential to give the main in calling numbers in that class

Central was then called as a test and a main number given minus the prefix She insisted on the prefix and told the reporter not to get smart when he insisted on the number without the prefix

Moral—If you mean to name a main number please fix your prefix in advance

A ranchman entered Musick's drug store 119 East Pontanere street yesterday morning and called for a telephone number He was heard to say What's that? The ranchman seemed puzzled and finally turned to a young man in the store and asked What in the world does the girl want to know my PRECINCT number for

Seeing an opportunity for some fun the young man answered that according to a new rule at the telephone office all users of the telephone must give their ward and precinct numbers when calling for a number The farmer thought awhile and explained to central that he was formerly in ward 8 precinct 1 but that he now lives in the country The hello girl also thought the ranchman was trying to be smart and it was only through the interference of a clerk in the store that the man got his number

TO PAY LAST DIVIDEND

WILL WIND UP AFFAIRS OF GENERAL METALS CO.

$26,415 60 to Be Distributed at Once Among the Creditors of Defunct Concern.

The third and final dividend to the creditors of the defunct General Metals company, amounting to $26 415 60 and comprising approximately 20 per cent of the unsecured indebtedness will be paid to creditors in a day or two by Referee George M Irwin This will make a total of $114 06.95 paid in five dividends or 30 per cent of the total unsecured indebtedness of $44 436 ... This action was authorized at a meeting of the creditors in Referee Irwin's office in this city yesterday and winds up the affairs of the bankrupt company

Referee Irwin collected a total of $168 794 12 from the assets of the company Of this amount $144 000 was secured through the sale of the Telluride mill in West Colorado Springs now known as the Golden Cycle mill to the Golden Cycle Mining company There was paid in preferred claims $14 494 34 and in liens $7 408 ... the total preferred payments aggregating $26 415 60 In addition $6 591 68 was paid in taxes fees etc making up the difference between the $168 794 12 collected and the $114 06.95 paid out in unsecured claims

Of the three dividends $44 447 60 or 10 per cent, was paid March 24 1906 an equal amount being disbursed November 26 1906 The dividend of $26 415 60 to be paid shortly will bear yesterday's date

The Telluride mill was constructed about seven years ago by the Telluride Reduction company the cost approximating $500 000 Later the plant was sold to the General Metals company of New York which changed the reduction process from chlorine to bromine This proved a failure and the company went into bankruptcy about three years ago The Golden Cycle company has now taken over and greatly enlarged the mill running a 00-ton cyanide plant

SERVICE FOR WORKING MEN

Brotherhood of First Presbyterian Church Arranges Special Program for May 19

The Brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church corner of Nevada avenue and Bijou street, will hold a special workingman's service in connection with the Sabbath exercises May 19 at 8 o clock in the evening The men of the church have arranged for a hearty welcome for all laboring men of the city who find it possible to attend

An attractive musical program will be given and the Rev E W Work pastor of the church will preach on The Carpenter of Nazareth An invitation to attend has been issued to the public by President H B Seldomridge of the Presbyterian brotherhood

The Presbyterian church of the United States has recently established a department of church and labor for the purpose of studying modern industrial problems and helping to bring about a closer relation between the church and laboring men The secretary of the department is the Rev Charles Stelzle himself a laboring man before becoming a minister has spoken during late years before hundreds of unions trade councils and federations and has been cordially welcomed everywhere Many of the leaders of the denomination feel that the church has no more important work to do than this work of the department of church and labor It is in harmony with this thought and purpose that the above service has been planned and the brotherhood hopes to have the co-operation of the laboring forces to make the service both memorable and useful

OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

What the Press Agents Say

OTIS SKINNER IN "THE DUEL"

Dozens of curtain calls at every performance and intense enthusiasm through every act testified to the triumph which Otis Skinner achieved last season in New York in "The Duel." He will be seen here in this famous success next Tuesday evening at the Opera house. "The Duel" has been well described as a big drama in three acts, finely and excellently

OTIS SKINNER

As "The Abbe Daniel" in "The Duel," at the Opera House Next Tuesday.

It is sure to excite the same earnest and thoughtful discussion here that it has done in Paris. Otis Skinner as the priest, who stands as a spiritual barrier between his brother, a free-thinking scientist, and a young and beautiful married woman, whose love he wishes to win, does some of the subtlest and most powerful acting of his career. He magnificently symbolizes the church militant, both in its aggressive and in its exquisite and spiritual character. The extraordinary scene at the end of the second act, in which the brothers are arrayed against each other in most desperate fashion, moves the audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. "The Duel" is a play that all lovers of good acting will be anxious to see and sure to enjoy. The play was a refreshing sensation to New York last season because it brought to it a combination of new ideas, brilliant literary work and splendid acting. The conflict of church, science and human passion is both fascinatingly and thrillingly presented in this drama by Henri Lavedan, which has been Englished by Louis N. Parker. It is one of the biggest plays New York has ever had and Otis Skinner as the priest hero, honestly earns all the praise and enthusiasm bestowed upon him in this production.

"HOME, SWEET HOME" MATINEE AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Popular Bobby and Marie Fountain, supported by an excellent company of players, will give a bargain matinee at the Opera house this afternoon, presenting the rural drama, entitled "Home, Sweet Home." Popular prices of admission will be charged; children, 10 cents; adults, 25 cents, to all parts of the house. The same play will be repeated again this evening, with the following cast of characters:

Frank Morney	Bobby Fountain
Dudley Storie	Fred Schrieber
Uncle Seth	Fred Dunning
Jethel Andrew Jackson Hackenbosh	Robert A. Lacy
Fred McDonald	Eddie Barnes
Si	Fred Byers
Cornelia Denniston	Florence Peyton
Roxie	Kitty Edwins
Rose Hartney	Marie Fountain

YEOMAN CARNIVAL

During week of May 20th, at Majestic hall, the Brotherhood of American Yeomen will hold a grand carnival, the proceeds to be used to send the initiatory team to the national convention, to be held in Minneapolis next year. All the features will be new and entertaining and nothing objectionable will tolerated in any respect. The admission is very low, 50c for six nights of rollicking fun. Free vaudeville, dancing and good music. Tickets are in the hands of all Yeomen.

LARGEST LEATHER BELT.

From Woodcraft.

In the equipment of the Dempsey Lumber company's new sawmill at Tacoma, Wash., is the largest single leather belt in the world. It is 84 inches in width, three-ply in thickness, and weighs just 2,500 pounds.

The belt is 214 feet long. It took the centers of the hides of 225 steers to make it, and each piece of this leather was separately stretched before being placed in the belt. In putting the belt together no pegs, rivets or fastenings of any kind were used, except cement of the best quality, and the plies were cemented together under a hydraulic pressure of 250 tons.

MINICIPAL MILK.

From the London Daily Mail.

John Burns' bill, authorizing the establishment of milk depots by local authorities, which he introduced in the house of commons on March 26, provides that the council of any municipal borough or urban district in England with a population of 50,000 or upward may establish depots for the sale of milk specially prepared for consumption by infants under two years of age.

This provision also extends to municipal boroughs or urban districts having a population of less than 50,000, but not less than 10,000, on application to and consent by the local government board.

Nervous Collapse

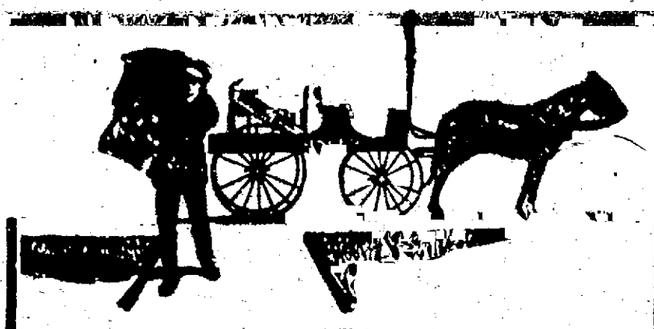

Colorado Springs Women Break Down Because They Have Kidney Troubles and Don't Know It.

Women of every age and condition break down and are brought to the verge of utter collapse because they have kidney troubles and don't know it. The disease saps vitality—shatters nerves—makes work, or rest, or sleep impossible. If you are tired out, irritable and depressed, suffer from dizzy sick headaches, pain in the back and sides, irregular flow of the urine, etc., don't neglect it, for delay is often fatal. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills, and see how quickly you will feel better, work better, rest better and sleep better. Doan's Kidney Pills have cured many Colorado Springs women. Here's Colorado Springs proof of it.

Mrs. David Chipman, 610 Tejon street, Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "For twenty years I was subject to attacks of dizziness which caused me great distress. About a year ago I suffered an especially severe attack and for one whole day and night I could not raise my head from the pillow. From that time on I was more subject to the distress. I was unable to walk across the floor without grasping something for support. I was unable to stoop over unless I placed a chair nearby. Doctors told me the trouble was due to nervousness and although I took their treatments and tried several different medicines I received no relief. A friend informed me that the trouble arose from a disordered condition of the kidneys and was sure if this was so that Doan's Kidney Pills would cure me. I procured a box at the D. Y. Butcher Drug Co.'s store and started taking them. They gradually corrected the troubles, and I continued using them until cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Try a Singer Or a Wheeler & Wilson On the Rental Plan

The purchase of a sewing machine is altogether too important a transaction to be decided off-hand, because it soon becomes a family institution.

When You Rent

a Singer or a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine

even for so short a time as one week you give yourself an opportunity to test a machine that will do its daily work so perfectly and noiselessly from the start, that you will hesitate before you let it go out of the house again.

No reason why it should go out either; for your rental payments may be applied to the purchase of the machine if you decide to keep it.

CRACKSMEN AT COLORADO CITY

Safe of Continental Oil Company Blown Open—Burglars Got $8 Police Have Clue

A safe belonging to the Continental Oil company at the office [illegible] First street was blown open and badly wrecked by safeblowers Thursday night. The men secured only $8.

Near the demolished safe were found the tools with which the work was done. A cold chisel had been used to pry open the top of the safe, through which nitroglycerin had been poured. A fuse was inserted at the top of the safe and a large sledge hammer propped against the safe door to prevent it flying across the room. However, so great a quantity of nitroglycerin had been used that one part of the door was [illegible] across the room and broke a large hole in the opposite wall. Another section of the safe door was blown against the door of the office. The [illegible] was [illegible] with pieces of soap and [illegible] places. A large ten pound sledge hammer with the word Nevada [illegible] upon it was found at the side of the room.

It is believed that the safe blowers were either amateurs since so much nitroglycerin was used or that the strength of the safe was overestimated. The amount of nitroglycerin used is believed to have been sufficient to wreck several such safes. It was [illegible] old make and had been in use since 1877. The company never kept any large amount of money in the office as the safes of the company all over the country have frequently been blown open. The safe at Cripple Creek has been wrecked three times and the one at Trinidad once within the last few years.

The office of the company is situated near the D. & R. G. railroad tracks. Entrance to the building was gained through the window on the north side of the building after the screen had been cut and the lock of the window sprung.

It is not known how many men took part in the work, but it is believed that only one man entered the [illegible] through the window as the [illegible] in the soft earth beneath the window show that the shoes were number seven and that one of the heels was worn down at the heel. The door of the office was opened [illegible] man or two [illegible]. The escape was made through the [illegible].

The office of the company was [illegible] by Fred P. Purdy, the manager [illegible] o'clock Thursday night and another employe of the company [illegible] the office until Mr. [illegible] o'clock [illegible] discovered that the burglary had been committed. [illegible] chief [illegible] with [illegible] careful investigation of the place [illegible]. A piece of fuse was found on the railroad track some distance from the company's office and it is believed that the safe blower [illegible] walked [illegible] but the police think they have a clue to the guilty party.

The safe [illegible] stock but was insured [illegible] will [illegible] covered.

TO FINE SALOON KEEPERS

Will Be Punished for Selling Liquor to Habitual Drunkards

There is a certain ordinance on the statutes of Colorado City which says that no saloon keeper shall sell liquor to any minor or habitual drunkard. STOCKS ARE STRONGER

SUBSIDENCE OF WEAKNESS OF PREVIOUS DAY.

Market, However, Continues in Mood of Dull Indecision—Crop Report Has Influence.

NEW YORK, May 10.—There was subsidence today of the acute weakness which was manifested in yesterday's stock market but the market continued in a mood of dull indecision which was only occasionally relieved by isolated advancing points. There was some revision of opinion towards the Union Pacific financial plan from the extreme disfavor in which it was held yesterday. Union Pacific itself showed evidences of some absorption and resisted the occasional pressure which it shared with the rest of the list.

From the standpoint of value of rights to stockholders carried by the subscription rights to the new securities there was obvious ground for disappointment on the part of the speculators who had bought the stocks in anticipation of these rights. The quotations in the curb market today for the Union Pacific rights were 1 2 and under and for the Southern Pacific rights 1 1 8 and under.

Great interest attached today to the monthly crop report issued by the agricultural department shortly after noon. The rise in wheat after the report appeared at the highest price of the season was the index of the interpretation placed upon the report and the reflected influence on this showing was a depressing factor in the later stock market. The percentage of condition reported in the winter wheat crop did not show as large a deterioration as was feared but the showing of upward of 3,500,000 acres of winter killed wheat was far in excess of any current supposition. The continued delay to spring wheat seeding by cold weather in the northwest was also a discouraging fact.

The London market was a center of some depression today growing out of the disorders among the Indian subjects of the British empire. London was reported a buyer of some stocks in this market including Union Pacific. Estimates of the week's currency movement did not create a large change in the cash item, the receipts on balance on the interior movement having been enough apparently to more than offset the subtreasury from the market, the latter including however the $2,000,000 deposited for the telegraphic transfer to San Francisco. The money market was appreciably stronger nevertheless and this caused the supposition that some large syndicate operations have affected the loan item of the banks during the week. Some weakness in Reading was accompanied by unconfirmed rumors of an intended note issue. Its decline helped to pull down the whole of the later market.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,141,000. U. S. 3s declined 1 per cent on call.

WHEAT MARKET ACTIVE

SHORT CROP REPORT BRINGS OUT BUYING ORDERS.

Volume of Trading During Latter Part of Day Enormous—Little Interest in Coarse Grains.

CHICAGO, May 10.—According to the government crop report the condition of winter wheat in the United States on May 1 was 82.9. This estimate was higher than had been generally expected and for some time after the announcement was made from Washington, the market showed signs of weakening. Later when the report was considered as a whole and it was seen that the early [illegible] had been abandoned sentiment changed to bullishness.

The area of winter wheat remaining in cultivation on May 1 was about 3,133,000 acres less than the area reported as sown last fall. This it was claimed would indicate a total yield of 90,000,000 bushels less than was given in the April report. This statement brought out an avalanche of buying orders and during the remainder of the day the volume of trading was enormous.

The heaviest buying was said to have been made by commission houses with eastern connections and it was said that several prominent Wall Street traders were largely interested in the purchases. Prices rose rapidly until July touched 8 3-4. Other options were equally as buoyant. Trading closed amid intense excitement and with prices near the high mark. July opened 1-8 lower at 8 7-8 sold at 85 3-4@85 7-8 and then advanced to 88 3-4. Final quotations were at 88 1-2@88 5-8. Exports for the week as shown by Bradstreets were equal to 3,000,000 bushels.

The market for coarse grain was overshadowed by the overwhelming amount of trade in wheat. The corn market failed to show any marked response to the upturn in wheat the time being steady all day following a small advance at the opening. The close was firm. July opened unchanged to 1-8 higher at 50 to 50 1-8 advanced to 50 1-4@50 3-8 and closed at 50 1-4.

The oats market was fairly active, the cold weather in the northwest bringing out a good demand from shorts and commission houses. The tone was firm all day. July oats opened a shade lower to a shade higher at 43 1-8@43 1-4 advanced to 43 3-4 and closed at 43 1-2@43 5-8.

Trading in provisions was fairly active and the market was firm. Large shipments of lard stimulated bullish sentiment. Shorts and local packers led in the buying. At the close July pork was up 10c at $16.70. Lard was up 7 1-2 at $9.22 1-2@$9.25 and ribs were 1-2 higher at $9.10.

WEATHER HINDERING FACTOR

Late Spring Is Still an Injury to Trade and Retards Crop Preparations—Bradstreet's Report

NEW YORK, May 10.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Weather conditions for five weeks past are still the key to the irregular crop and trade reports. Freezing weather and snow have hurt the trade and retarded crop preparations and growth in the northwest while low temperatures and heavy rains affect southern distribution and crops and influence distribution in the west.

Other developments of the week have been encouraging. In the iron and steel industries current production at the maximum and other industries particularly building are being actively pushed. Labor disturbances are not serious except at San Francisco where business has been brought to a complete standstill and at New York where a nearly general strike of dock laborers has caused interruption to freight.

Higher prices for cereals cotton and other natural products are a result of bad crop reports and broadening speculative interest. European crops are little better than our own and partly explain higher quotations offered for wheat and corn. Copper is dull owing to the fact that when prices were advancing last week some large quantities were offered at concessions which in turn deterred European demand and whatever domestic inquiry there was.

Business failures for the week ending May 9 in the United States number 1 4 against 163 last week.

NEW FIND REPORTED

STRIKE SAID TO HAVE BEEN MADE ON ANNIE ROONEY.

Six Feet of Ore Is Declared to Give Returns of $35 to Ton—Some High-Priced Streaks

Special to The Gazette

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 10.—It is unofficially stated that the Union Leasing company which has made two strikes during the past month of more than passing importance has come into the third body of ore that also carries very handsome values on the Annie Rooney claim on the extreme northwest slope of Gold hill belonging to the Moon Anchor company.

The Annie Rooney claim lies very close to the Abe Lincoln situated in Poverty gulch. According to the report after driving a crosscut 400 or 500 feet at a depth of 500 feet the Union Leasing company has found six feet of ore that will give returns clear across it from $30 to $35 with many rich streaks carrying picture values. Reliable information is not obtainable but it is generally believed here that a good strike has been made in this claim.

$60 ORE IN THE TEMONJ

Darnell Is Shipping Out Two Cars Each Week

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 10.—D. O. Darnell leasing on the Temonj property on the northwest slope of Gold hill is shipping out from two to three cars of ore a week that are giving average returns running from $40 to $60 in gold to the ton. The ore is being broken down in a stope from the Temonj tunnel which has been extended into the side of the hill a couple of hundred feet about six or seven feet wide. Operations are also being conducted through a shallow shaft further up the hill. Ore is to be found in both places.

$40 ORE ON THE MOHICAN

Olsen Brothers Ship Two Cars of Good Ore

Special to The Gazette

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 10.—Olsen brothers leasing on the Mohican on Battle mountain today shipped out two cars of ore that will probably run $35 to $40 in gold to the ton. These lessees are working through the Ajax shaft at a depth of 1,000 feet where they have a fine ore shoot opened up for about 50 feet and which has an average width of eight feet. These operators are making a handsome profit every month.

AURORA MINES RESUME

Group of Claims, Idle for Years Are Again Being Worked

LEADVILLE, May 10.—The Aurora group of claims comprising sixty five acres and located toward the head of Empire gulch after being idle for a number of years has resumed work. When the property was first worked a tunnel was driven in several hundred feet from the base of the hill and the ore in the breast showed values of one to two and one half ounces in gold. A shaft was started from the surface to connect with the tunnel but after sinking 1[illegible] feet it had to be abandoned because of the inflow of water.

Major A. V. Pohn has started work on the tunnel and it will probably be driven a distance of 1,000 feet by which time it is expected the main ore body will be struck.

Workmen Make Remarkable Discovery While Digging Near Surface on Vacant Lots

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 10.—Ernest Bruer and associates are now negotiating for a mining lease on a number of vacant city lots in the northern portion of this city. Workmen while digging a refuse hole at a depth of eight or ten feet came down on a flat ... [illegible] ... twenty two inches wide. Free quartz was ... The lowest assay taken went [illegible] in gold to the ton ... some of the assays went several hundred dollars. As soon as a lease can be secured on sufficient territory to warrant putting in machinery development work will be started when the theory of Mineral hill ... [illegible] ... is hoped to be demonstrated ... that Mineral hill has the true source of much of the ore of the camp.

NOVELISTS AS PLAYWRIGHTS

From the London World.

The reason which far more than any other prevents novelists from writing good plays is that to produce a drama which will act is many times harder than to write readable novels. As a rule novelists appear to think that playgoers are mere children. They construct their plays upon nursery lines in words of one syllable as it were. The cleverness, the observation, the humor which they put into their novels they leave on one side—or else it goes for nothing because they do not know how to make use of it.

TESTED WITH DROPS OF WATER

From the London Chronicle

A drop of water . . . three or four drops falling on the head . . . is a . . . continuous . . . in China . . . slow and continuous dripping water on the head has been found to be . . . torture . . . criminals . . .

When a professor in . . . this class . . . of the students laughed . . . said he would like a good deal of that sort of thing to affect him.

The professor said that . . . one quart of water dropped slowly on his head would . . . his endurance . . . He agreed to experiment.

A quart measure filled with water was brought . . . a hole in the bottom and the performance began, the professor counting.

During the first hundred drops the . . . With the second hundred he began to look less cheerful, then gradually all his talk died away and his face took on a haggard tortured expression. With the third hundred the hand began to swell and look red. The pain increased to torture. Finally the skin broke.

At the 420th drop the skeptic acknowledged his doubts vanished and begged for mercy. He could bear no more.

HAS KILLED MANY INDIANS

Nebraskan Devoted Forty-three Years to Slaughtering Redskins

From the Kansas City Star

Upon a bank of the Missouri river in Cedar county, Nebraska lives . . . who has killed hundreds of Indians . . . knows how many redskins he killed. He does not himself know. But forty-three years of his life were devoted to the one effort of killing as many as he could in revenge for the massacre of his . . . children.

Hanson Wiseman . . . his wife and baby went from . . . to northern Nebraska . . . This was then the wild west . . . enlisted as . . . Nebraska brigade . . . warnings of his neighbors he departed with the troop.

Less than a year later Wiseman's three children were murdered . . . little sister and baby brother . . . return . . . fifth day she found the . . . the baby dead. Her daughter was still alive but with . . . tongue cut out . . . a few days . . . crazed with grief ran away.

Had a Private Graveyard

. . . Without asking . . . his wife . . . was able to tell him the story.

Close by where the Wiseman's had lived was the hunting ground of the Poncas, and the territory was now . . . invaded by the Yankton Sioux who were in conflict with the Nebraska . . . Wiseman was never able to discover whether it had been Sioux or Ponca that had murdered his family.

Upon the graves of the children he swore the . . . of the West Virginia hill tribes and . . . Indians he killed no one pretends to know. A few years ago . . . the foot of the bluff upon which . . . burial ground . . . diana . . . burying ground . . . assert it was the climax . . . private graveyard and the bullets were the . . . victims.

Wiseman . . . his game . . . over prairie . . . he would . . . Indian . . . when the . . . it was . . . from Nebraska to the . . . Wiseman lay in wait . . . the first two . . . with . . . . often wounded . . .

FREAK EUROPEAN PAPERS

Plans to Win Readers Failed to Prolong Their Lives

From the Chicago Chronicle

A . . . magazine writer . . . into the subject of freak newspapers . . . the most remarkable of all . . . the Lumina . . . published in . . . with which it was printed . . . age of phosphorus . . . that the letters were visible and the paper could be read in the dark.

Next after this in . . . remarkable the case of the Regal printed with an ink . . . printed . . . on thin sheets . . . at the . . . It thus . . . from . . . for . . .

In . . . Le Beh . . . printed . . . in spite of the . . . inducement subscribers were . . . few that the paper died in a month. It was followed shortly after by a paper called Le Mouchoir, the number . . . It was printed on paper . . . so called Japanese napkin . . . could be used . . . handkerchief. It did not last long.

At two different French . . . resorts newspapers called the Council de Baigneurs (Bathers . . . printed on . . . water . . . The inducement was that the bather could take the paper into the sea with him and read it while he enjoyed his bath.

BORAX WORTH BILLIONS

From the Baltimore Sun

In the . . . of the resource of Nevada . . . and the Death Valley region . . . western papers say that Mount Blan . . . of pure borax. It is the property of . . . man Frank M Smith . . . this mountain . . . thereby . . . visible supply of borax . . . the world. The market value of this borax where it lies is something . . . $100 . . . Experts estimate . . . contain . . . at least . . . 000 . . . of borax in it.

This mountain standing at the north end of the Funeral range within a stone's throw of Death Valley says the writer makes Smith easily the richest man in the world from a . . . of resources. But this borax . . . is merely a lining for the pot of gold that rests in the Funeral range.

JAPANESE POLICE METHODS

From the Philadelphia Record

I think it would be a good thing if our patrolmen followed the custom of the Japanese when they arrest criminals and then maybe the prisoners would feel their shame more keenly said a much traveled man the other day to a friend as they stood in Broad street and watched a prison van pass by on its way to the central station.

In Japan the traveler continued when an officer makes an arrest he simply takes from his pocket a piece of cord and ties one end to the prisoner's wrist. Then he marches him to the police box at the end of this piece of cord. The prisoner is usually much ashamed and hangs his head as the crowd sees him being led through the streets in this humiliating manner. Here however we bundle criminals and suspects into closed vans where they are fully protected from the gaze of persons in the street and consequently are not made to feel the shame of their position.

CHANCE FOR SARTORIAL GENIUS

From the Tailor and Cutter

A change of some sort in nether garments would be welcomed by many for since the introduction of the crease they have been stationary from the standpoint of style and it would be well if some fluting, plaiting or strapping could be introduced to revivify this garment.

A . . . months is wasted on the . . . and the old maid.

SPECIAL BREAD

Our Home-Made Bread is a special bread, because it is different from all other bakers' bread. There is a greater degree of cleanliness, better materials, more skill and better brains connected with the making of our bread than any you ever ate,—unless you have already eaten some of ours. Yes, maybe we are prejudiced in its favor, but if you will only try one loaf, you'll see the reason,—just as hundreds of others have done.

KEEPING THE OLD LETTERS.

Good Way Is to File Them in Alphabetical Order.

From the Chicago Chronicle.

Several years ago it was quite a fad for couples to be married kneeling on cushions stuffed with their old love letters. Whereat the cynic and the victim of a breach of promise suit alike ejaculated "Amen!"

Aside from such bizarre practices, however, many persons treasure for years their old letters, love and otherwise. As to business letters, this is undoubtedly a wise proceeding. It is well to have documentary evidence of every business transaction, no matter how small it may be. In regard to merely personal letters, a dissenting opinion might be expressed. Often they are of so very personal a character that the best thing for all concerned is to destroy them [illegible] and answered. But where nothing of this sort exists, and the letter is merely a pleasant and familiar chat or a pleasant note of thanks or good wishes, it is often a greater pleasure in the years to come than at the time of receipt. Especially is this true of those rare letters which are really literature and which, coming from some persons, really constitute entertaining or valuable essays.

A good way to keep letters is to arrange them alphabetically, according to the writer's name, and those of the same writer according to date of receipt. Then, if divided into equal piles, and securely fastened, they are always ready for reference of any sort. It is best, also, to keep all letters in one box, as large as may be necessary, plainly labeled and securely bound.

DEATH NATURAL

From The Hospital.

Sleep is an instinctive need for rest; natural death, in a like manner, is the manifestation of an instinctive want, and the instinct of death is often seen in very old people, who die as easily and quietly as children fall asleep. This instinct of death has always been recognized, and it has been associated from all time with the gift of prophecy, for, as Artaeus tells us in his essay on the burning fever of Hippocrates, "the soul, whilst shuffling off this mortal coil and disentangling itself from the incumbrances of the body, becomes purer, more essential and entirely spiritual, as if it had already commenced its new existence; or, as Shelly phrased it, 'like an unbodied joy whose race is just begun.'" The predictions of Jacob before he "drew up his feet into the bed and yielded up the ghost" are known to every one, and the poets have made full use of this gift of prophecy just before death. Sophocles in the "Oedipus Colonegus" represents Oedipus, as he is walking to the spot where he is to die, foretelling to Theseus the prosperity of Athens and of his family. Virgil makes Orodes prophesy the death of Meleontius. Old John of [illegible] as he dies: "Methinks I am new inspired!"

But medical men are concerned with the practical side of [illegible] with the folk lore and superstitions which have gathered around it. Their duty to attend the dead is to alleviate sufferings associated with it as far as possible, making departure from this life easy. This is a part of their art. Francis Bacon, in his treatise "Instauratio Magna Sanitarium," applied the word "Euthanasia." The subject is the most careful study, for

"Fresh Roasted Coffee?—bah! Mother didn't use fresh roasted coffee, she had Arbuckles."

The way to get a good cup of coffee that tastes like Coffee with all the delicious flavor and aroma intact, is to buy a package of the old original Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee, and grind it as you want to use it, first warming it a little to develop the flavor and make the grinding easy. Coffee loses its identity as Coffee after being ground or exposed to the air and is easily contaminated by handling.

Sold in full weight coffee.
